PREFACE.

The 16th Volume of the Lineage Book contains the record of No. 15001 to 16000. The last named was admitted in December, 1896. Six thousand members were added to the rolls that year. Of those, some have one, some many additional ancestors, whose record greatly increase the size of the volume and the time employed, but it adds to the interest and value of the work.

This volume is illustrated with portraits of the three first Honorary Vice-Presidents General, all Charter Members.
